The Situation at Alexandria.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]

ALEXANDRIA, July 18.—Last night was quiet. The lines are now very strongly guarded. Fires are nearly all extinguished, and the police arrangements are thoroughly effective.

COMMUNICATION WITH ARABI'S CAMP.

A correspondent has opened communication with the camp of Arabi Pasha, which, his informant says, consists of a little over 6,000 men, who are intensely discontented and surrounded by starving women and children. People of the lowest class are still being enticed by Arabi with promises of unlimited plunder, and the force is held together by the assertion that the English will kill all who return to the city.

ANOTHER MASSACRE.

The khedive states that twenty-five Europeans have been killed at Kafir-el-Dwar. The numerous executions at Alexandria excite some comment.

COMPELLING MEN TO FIGHT.

Arabi and Toulba Pachas have utterly lost prestige by their gross cowardice during the bombardment. The artillery men were kept at their guns on the 11th inst., by infantry posted under cover.

THE POLICE REGULATIONS.

ALEXANDRIA, July 18.—The idea of occupying Romieh has been abandoned. Five hundred marines will occupy seven different centers, which is expected to place the whole town under efficient surveillance. The native police are being organized to act under the military police, and detectives have been instructed to search for suspicious persons.

FIRING AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS.

ALEXANDRIA, July 18.—There was an attempt last evening to set fire to St. Mark's buildings, headquarters of Americans in Alexandria.

Americans in the Fight.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]

LONDON, July 18.—A leading editorial in the morning Post says that the behavior of the American admiral and his men at Alexandria is beyond all praise. Amid diplomatic protests, European concerts and conferences, and naval demonstrations of imbecility it is refreshing to find a command who is willing and able to see things and do what he says. Sixty marines, physically speaking, could not do much, but there is a way of giving support which quadruples it in value. The conduct of Americans during the night of the alarm that Arabi Pasha was coming, contrasts remarkably with that of the French and Italians.

The Logansport Cashier.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

LOGANSPORT, July 18.—It has been discovered that Oscar Goodwin, late cashier of the Logansport National bank, is defaulter to the amount of $15,000, the whole sum being on account of the Merchant's National bank of Chicago. Goodwin disappeared some time ago, taking with him his bond as cashier and tearing from the records all reference to it.

The $150,000 Game of Poker.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

CHICAGO, July 18.—As a sequel to the big poker game at Newburg, N. Y., in which Mr. Wood lost $150,000 Judge Fullerton, of New York, and Tribble, of Chicago, yesterday, acting for Wood, attached the stable of Williams horses J. B. Thomas, St. Remo, Bay Billy and Novelty, and is valued at $15,000. Bond was furnished by his friends at the Driving Park. Scott Hedges, partner in the game, was also taken into custody, though sick at the Briggs house.

The Hillsdale Crew.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]

LONDON, July 18.—The Hillsdale crew has been refused entry to all races. The English association is inquiring in America for the amateur standing of the crew before deciding to accept their challenge.

A Crank's Brother Crushed.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

COLUMBUS, O, July 18.—Wilber Bethard, brother of the crank who wanted to shoot Guiteau in the court room at Washington, was run over by the cars at Elmwood, on the Toledo road this morning and killed.

St. Julien Will not Trot.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

[illegible] 18.—St. Julien, [illegible]ary lameness, will be [illegible] several weeks and [illegible]rawn from the race with Trinket to-morrow. In its place there will be an exhibition of speed by Phil Thompson.

Fearful Quarrel on the Plains.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

SANTA FE, N. M., July 18.—Henry Jansen and Charles Bondsten, both Swedes, and Bill Warton fought in the Pittman valley about a blanket. The Swedes cut Wharton nearly to pieces and Wharton killed Jansen and mortally wounded Bondsten.

Abducted for Ransom.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

MONTREAL, July 18.—Last night the abduction of the two year old child of Melvin Smith, a wealthy gentleman of this city, was boldly carried out. A note on the pillow demanded 10,000 pounds as a ransom, and threatened to murder the child if refused.

A Deadly Encounter.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

SHREVEPORT, La., July 18.—In the court house hall at Floyd, David I. Narwood attempted to cane L. J. Polk, both prominent planters. Each pulled Colt's dragon pistols and began firing. Polk was shot dead, and Narwood was badly wounded. Cause of the quarrel, a law suit.

Another Railroad Accident.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

ST. JOHNS, N. B., July 18.—An axle under a passenger car on the Prince Edward Island railroad broke near Charlottstown yesterday. Two cars were derailed and four passengers fatally injured, including a woman and child, who fell beneath the car. Collector Rule, of Boston, was among the wounded.

A Famine Threatened in Ireland.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]

DUBLIN, July 18.—It is feared that another crisis is approaching. The weather threatens utter destruction to what promised to be the finest harvest ever reaped in Ireland. The heavy and almost incessant rain has laid low many flourishing fields. Potatoes suffered severely. If the weather improves there will still be a hope of recovery.

Fighting the Revolutionists.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

MATAMORAS, Mexico, July 18.—Emeliana Daniels and Alijo Sepeda, heading five hundred revolutionists, captured the town of Sanala Chihlas, yesterday, overpowered the gens d' arms, released prisoners from the jail and armed them. Capt. Santa Anna Gusman, with eighty gens d' arms, charged on the revolutionists, when the latter retreated. They lost several killed and many wounded.

The Driving Matinee.

The inaugural one of a series of driving matinees under the auspices of the Northern Indiana Fair association takes place this afternoon and the early part of the evening. The opening matinee will be free to all and the gates open at 5 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a brilliant turn out of speedy animals.

A Challenge.

THE SLUGGER

Pounds Wilson all Over the Ring But Fails to Knock Him Out of Time.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Before seven last evening the vicinity of Madison Square garden was a perfect ocean of humanity. Thousands and thousands had gathered there, attracted by the announcement that within the walls of the garden John L. Sullivan, the champion of America, and "Tug" Wilson, the champion of England, would meet and fight according to the challenge. The Englishman stood the punishment inflicted by Sullivan, and although knocked down twenty-seven times, fought against the ropes in every conceivable manner and managed to stand out for four rounds, and won $1,000 and his share of the gate money.

Round 1—Wilson leading, planted a light blow on Sullivan's face. The latter then went at the Englishman viciously, and nine times in succession knocked him down. He fought him all over the ring and on the ropes, planting stinging blows on the [illegible] and neck.

Round 2—This round was a rep[illegible] tion of the first round, only that [illegible] son instead of leading was on the [illegible] fensive. Sullivan pitched in hammer and tongs and laid Wilson out eight times. Wilson always managed to gain his feet before the expiration of ten seconds. He succeeded in getting one or two blows in on Sullivan, and when knocked down once or twice drew Sullivan on top of him.

Round 3—This was a desperate one. Sullivan's teeth were clenched, and he rushed at Wilson and knocked him against the ropes and all over the ring, the Englishman standing up gamely and receiving a terrible slugging punishment. Once in a while he gained a few seconds by clinching and holding Sullivan's arms, but it was for a very few seconds only. In this round he was knocked down five times.

Round 4—Time being called, Sullivan fairly leaped at Wilson. He pounded and hammered the Englishman and knocked him clean off his feet five times more, but the little fellow pluckily stuck to his job, receiving all the punishment Sullivan could administer until the four minutes had expired and the fight was declared at an end. The time of battle was fifteen minutes, including three minutes for rest between rounds.

We have been favored with a pamphlet which is the Fourth Annual Announcement of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine, commonly known as the Calhoun street college. We note that there have been several changes in the faculty since last year. Prof. Geo. W. McCaskey has been transferred from the chair of physiology to that of theory and practice of medicine. Prof. I. Ellis Lyons has been transferred to the chair of obstetrics. Profs. R. W. Thrift, Norman Teal, J. H. Kellogg, K. K. Whitelock and D. W. Fennimore are other additions. All are gentlemen of culture and many medical attainments. We hope to see the next college year successful, even beyond the sanguine anticipation of the gentlemen in charge. The fall term begins Sep. 12.

The Princeton (Ind.) Democrat says: "Hon. Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, will be a candidate before the democratic state convention for the nomination of judge of the supreme court, in the place of Judge Worden, who declines to be a candidate. Mr. Zollars is a sound lawyer, a clever gentleman, and every way qualified for the position to which he aspires."

T. P. Keator, editor of the Gazette, this afternoon caused the arrest of a fellow named "Prof." E. Clancy, who runs a fake show of some kind. The charge is provoke and is on trial before Pratt, J. P. Mr. Keator approached the fellow to interview him and was assailed with foul language.

This morning a new clerk was hired at Gumpper's grocery. His waggish fellows played numerous heartless jokes on the artless youth, who was set to work at the coffee mill to "grind out the hot water." He laboriously turned the crank for fully fifteen minutes while the boys held their sides.

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Why they are Preferred to All other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

First.
Because they possess all the merit of the best existing porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and vegetable combination which acts with instantaneous rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.

Second.
Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.

Third.
Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.

Fourth.
Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.

Fifth.
Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.

Sixth.
Because the manufacturers have received the highest medals ever given for porous plasters.

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Lydia E. Pinkham is a name known to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings is undeniably called the "Dear Friend of Woman," because of her correspondents love to call her. She is entirely devoted to her work, which is the outcome of study, and is obliged to keep six lady clerks to help her answer the large correspondence daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special tale of suffering, for joy at relief from it. Her Compound is a medicine for good and not evil. I have personally investigated it and satisfied of the truth of this.

Apart from the fact of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. Lydia says: "If women like it chaos and save pain it will cure distinctly the worst form of Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent Spinal Weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It dissolves every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down pains, weight and backache, is always permanently relieved by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

For the cure of kidney complaints of either sex this, or Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills," have no rivals. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills" have been tested for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier stands foremost in its special line and bids fair to rival her Compound in its popularity.

Mrs. Pinkham is known as an Angel of Mercy whose sole aim is to relieve suffering humanity, and to attempt to impose upon her confidence in this respect would be little short of criminal.

Mrs. PINKHAM.

Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., and any lady writing her for advice will receive a prompt answer.

For sale by all druggists. Price of Compound $1, of Pills 25 cents per box. Sold by all druggists throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

THE party surveying the Kankakee river country, with a view of draining it, report the situation very favorable.

THE sultan of Turkey has presented a maiden to Gen. Lew Wallace, United States minister. Several papers have hinted that Mr. Wallace might start a "harem."

AFTER years of suffering Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, wife of the martyred president, died at Springfield, Ill., Sunday evening. She was a fine, noble woman.

THE mayor and city council of Leadville were arrested Saturday and fined $250 each and ten days in jail for contempt of court. The police judge and city attorney were removed and new men appointed in their places.

THE people of large cities are protesting against the use of church bells. They disturb the quiet and remind the facetious individuals that Christianity still flourishes without their assistance. All the trouble lies in the last point.

ACCORDING to our esteemed morning contemporary, the Gazette, the republicans of Allen county will be satisfied with one representative. In democratic strongholds the liberality of republicans is unbounded. Elsewhere it is a stranger.

WHILE the Pennsylvania republicans are wasting valuable time in trying to harmonize, the democrats are quietly at work organizing for the campaign. They will not begin a formal canvass, however, until they see whether there will be one or two enemies to fight.

THE New York state convention is called for the 8th of August. Indications still point to the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden for governor. It is a question whether Mr. Tilden would accept the nomination, but there is no question about the democrats of New York being still loyal to the gallant old leader.

SENATOR HARRISON is a philanthropist. The first thing he did after entering the United States senate, according to the reliable correspondent of the New York Sun, was to secure positions under the government for twenty-one relatives. Ben believes in keeping a good thing in the family.

IT is now openly charged that Dr. Hicks sold Guiteau's body for a handsome sum. The doctor does not deny the accusation, and as no one seems to take enough interest in the departed assassin, the matter will never be explained. Mrs. Scoville might proceed in the premises, but Dr. Hicks could immediately procure her arrest for poisoning a bouquet intended for the assassin.

GENERAL STEEDMAN, the old democratic warhorse, of Toledo, Ohio, predicts large party gains in that state this fall. He predicts a majority for the democracy of 4,000 in the tenth congressional district. This is the district in which Frank Hurd expects to get the democratic nomination and test the popularity of free trade doctrines. It is safe to say that Mr. Hurd will be successful.

AGAIN the world is threatened. The huge red spot on the disk of the planet Jupiter has reappeared. A Chicago astronomer says that this spot is 30,000 miles in diameter. Gee whiz!

miles, or one and [illegible] in length. [illegible] have imagined [illegible] tion of the [illegible] longitude [illegible] tion. It appears to us that it is more probably an immense floating island of semi-cool matter resting on a liquid incandescent ocean surrounding the planet." The time has not been fixed for the descension of this immense floating island.

THE leading democratic papers of the state are a unit in favor of the nomination of Hon. James H. Rice, for auditor of state, and all acknowledge that his great service to the party entitle him to the position. THE SENTINEL doubts not that Mr. Rice will receive the nomination on the first ballot. He should receive the solid vote of Allen county, because, when any of her citizens aspired to office, Mr. Rice was their staunch friend.

A LETTER WRITER at Alexandria, a woman, explains the entire situation and gives a highly romantic explanation of the Egyptian question. Her story is that Arabi, early in his career, fell madly in love with an Egyptian girl, the daughter of a fellah, but the unscrupulous Ismail, then khedive, also took a fancy to the girl, and had her carried off to his harem without even saying "by your leave." He tried to pacify the luckless Arabi by making him a bey, but Arabi never forgave the injury, and from that moment vowed dire vengeance upon Ismail and his family.

See, Feel and Believe.

"Truth conquers," and Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the embodiment of truth. "Actions speak louder than words," and its action on corns of every description has been the means of extending its reputation far and wide. The explanation of its success is that it performs all that it claims to do, viz., to remove the worst corns in a few days without pain. Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold by druggists everywhere. Wholesale and retail, Dreier & Bro., Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gen. Sherman says he will not fill the vacancy on his staff caused by the promotion of Col. Dodge.

"Golden Medical Discovery" is not only a sovereign remedy for consumption, but also for consumptive nightsweats, bronchitis, coughs, influenza, spitting of blood, weak lungs, shortness of breath and kindred affections of the throat and chest. By druggists.

Times are so hard it is said that married men at summer resorts this season will have to smoke five cent cigars and flirt with their wives.

Dandruff

Is removed by the use of Cocoaine and it stimulates and promotes the growth of the hair. Burnett's Flavoring Extracts are the best.

A point well taken: Many a self made man would have done better by himself had he let the contract go out to somebody else.

Beautiful Women

A Philadelphia man who had been jilted by a wide mouthed girl had a terrible revenge. He sent her a scrubbing brush for a tooth brush.

"A coward can be here at a distance; presence of danger tests presence of mind." Presence of disease tests the value of a curative. Kidney-Wort challenges this test always and everywhere, so far as all complaints of the bowels, liver and kidneys are concerned. It cures all, nor asks any odds.

Quiet Warfare is Accomplished.

Was the touching inscription [illegible] upon the tombstone of a husband [illegible] There is nothing which so [illegible] induces domestic wretchedness as ill health, and especially weakness in the back, loss of physical power, an early breaking down of body, rendering one unfit to attend to his business. Then cares and anxieties multiply, the family becomes ragged, and ready flies out of the window. Behold the great restorer, Hunt's Remedy! Quietly it comes to the man's relief. One bottle searches out the disease, and begins its cure. Two or three more take on the good work and finish it satisfactorily. The kidneys are healed and restored to their proper functions, the weakness is gone, the back is relieved, the bloom of health returns, and all the old time mental vigor in one's business affairs; and there is no more ill temper, but lasting peace. All hail to Hunt's remedy!

TUESDAY, JULY [illegible]

THE CITY.

Miss Lou Wells is visiting friends at Bluffton.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Beaks, of Shelbyville, are in the city.

E. Shuman, the second hand man returned from the east to-day.

Miss Lizzie Colerick is, we are pleased to learn, quite past danger.

A. A. DeCreet and C. W. Cook, of the Nickel Plated, are registered at the Aveline.

Hon. Wm. Fleming returned from Cleveland last night. He reports nothing of local interest.

The Morgan & Beach and Prescott base ball clubs are training for a match game to take place soon.

A newly formed social club, the "Delmonico," have a hop at Eckford's dancing academy Thursday night.

Meedames Moon, Mann and Richards, all of Decatur, are in the city the guests of Mrs. Nunemaller, of 166 Clinton street.

Some Conservatory damsels from Ossian have arrived in the city. The fascinations here are too strong for 'em. They can't help it.

Lafayette Courier: "Miss Mary Beach will entertain her friends on Wednesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Irwin, of Fort Wayne."

Masons are at work on the abutments for the Clinton street bridge and will have everything in readiness for the iron span the latter part of the week.

A string band was out late last night calling numerous Juliets to their window boudoirs to acknowledge the compliment of the "Musical Romeos," as the club is known.

W. A. Croxton, formerly of this city, now chief clerk in General Freight Agent Bromley's office at Jackson, Mich., has resigned. We are not advised of his intentions.

The council as a committee of the whole and the city civil engineer this morning deposited themselves in Powers & Barnett's big 'bus and are inspecting the sewerage system of the city.

Fred Simmony, a pauper patient at the City hospital, died of consumption yesterday. Already the doctors are quarreling as to who shall possess the unfortunate man's stiff for dissecting purposes.

Yesterday while working in the calaboose tramp quarters above stairs, a young man was invaded by a procession of huge graybacks which made a pilgrimage down the small of his back. He fled for a bath tub.

Edith, the fourteen year old daughter of A. J. Seely, of 72 Williams street, died at 1 o'clock this morning. The funeral will take place from the family residence at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. Services at the house.

Jonathan Batch and family, who inhabited the old school house on Lafayette street, have removed to Selnia, O., and are no longer a township charge. The wretched scenes of squalor here were depicted by THE SENTINEL.

A New York, Chicago and St Louis engine this morning killed two valuable cows, the property of R. Mergel and M. D. Gorham. The animals were on the track west of the bridge. The company is liable, as their track is not yet fenced in.

The disposition of the ladies' skates at the rink the other night has caused a great deal of trouble in west end society, so we learn, and actually led to a serious falling out between two prominent ladies, who now allude one to the other as "that nasty, hateful thing." Poor Nesley is responsible for all this and is yet as innocent as a SENTINEL reporter for instance.

We hear some startling reports regarding the character of a fellow employed by the Island Park Assembly. One is that he committed an outrage on a little girl in Howard county, and another that he is "wanted" by the authorities of a Missouri town. We should advise the saintly gentlemen in charge to investigate, as we know they already have several pointers. To have such fellows about does not redound to the credit of Co. or the Assembly.

Last night a painful sight was noticed in front of a store on Berry street. A railroad engineer and his brother, both more or less under the influence of liquor, went into the store to purchase clothes, when the wife of one came along and made things warm for the brothers. She accused her husband of spending his evenings in saloons and his money for lobsterine, while his wife and children suffered for the necessaries of life. [illegible]

HEARD AT THE BARBERS.

Quite [illegible] the arrest of Frank Horne. [illegible] works this week will ship nine carloads of wagons to various points in the country.

Dr. T. Kelly, late a Jackson engineer, is in the city. He is now engaged in the saloon business at Logan, Ill.

John Taylor, esq., has been quite ill. The presence of two physicians a fortnight ago were required. Happily he is now better.

On the 25th inst., many of Professor Eckford's dancing class go to Huntington to attend the professor's farewell soiree there.

Willis D. Maier, Peter Morgenthaler and E. A. K. Hackett left for Fremont to-day, where the fishing is said to be excellent.

It is said that a new organ factory is about to be established in this city. Several employes of the present organ factory are interested in it.

George Gerrice, James Brown and Martin Collins, all drunkards, were run in last night and went to jail this morning for twelve days each.

On next Tuesday, the county commissioners will let the contract for coal for the asylum, jail and court house. Bidders will take notice.

A snide young man is making foolish boasts that he will clean out this establishment. We shall make the snide youth sick before we are done with him.

Sheriff Cosgrove and Deputy Sheriff Nelson left last night for [illegible] with Peter Waldschmidt [illegible] Annie Christie, committed [illegible] formatory for women.

A number of suits brought [illegible] Justice Ryan by laborers against the L., M. & D. Construction company for wages due were settled this morning by the company.

The young fellow who took the hack to the rink last night and kept it waiting, didn't make it [illegible] The old gentleman was "on" and watched proceedings with a hawk-like eye.

Alice Winsley, a colored girl, was fined recently for provoke on a Mrs. Ridley. Ben Blake, the black barber of Columbia street, and wife stayed the fine and Alice went to Warsaw to join a troupe of jubilee singers, but would not cash up. To-day Blake went there to bring her back, being deputized as a constable by Justice Ryan.

Up to yesterday no bids had been received from Fort Wayne parties by the chief engineer of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad for the depot and freight house it is proposed to erect in this city. It is understood, however, that Alfred Shrimpton, the contractor who built the Catholic Library hall, will bid on both structures.

Last Saturday, Michael Baltes was ordered to suspend work on the foundation for the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad shop and round house in this city, and for a time it was thought that, as several of our citizens had made a fight against the company, the round house and shop would be taken from us. Mr. Baltes has received instructions to resume operations, however, and everything may still go along smoothly. Mr. Fleming's visit to Cleveland may have had something to do with it.

A Destitute Family.

At No. 53 Butler street has lived Samuel Rushton, a Wabash blacksmith, and family. Last week, Rushton, who is dissipated, skipped out and left his wife and four children in a distressing state of destitution. Mrs. Rushton is confined to her bed with consumption and cannot live long. The children are dirty, ragged and half starved. The township trustee was notified and visited the house and relieved the immediate and pressing wants of the wretched woman and her children.

Mrs. Rushton has no idea her husband will return, as he was discouraged and far beyond reclaim. The case is one which strongly appeals to the charitable.

Got It in The Neck.

Mrs. Bridget Bowley and her husband, a quiet and subdued Celt, occupy part of the premises, 47 Barr street and one Schragge, a tailor, and his family the rest of the house. Yesterday Mrs. Howley, who was somewhat in liquor, became enraged because Mrs. Schragge left a slop pail in a most offensive odor and ordered it removed. Mrs. Schragge proceeded to enjoy her own good time about removing the nuisance and the discussion led to a racket in which both females contended for the possession of the vessel and its unsavory contents, Mrs. Howley receiving a deluge of the nasty stuff in the neck. The racket then grew fashed when Bowley [illegible] Mrs. Schragge and her husband [illegible] Bowley [illegible]

ARTHUR ASHTON,

Late of the Wayne—Mr. Harcourt Reviews His Own Fort Wayne Career and Boasts of His Solidity—With the Nabobs of Our City.

THE SENTINEL is in receipt of a copy of the Lisbon (D. T.) Star, the newspaper founded by Mr. Harry D. Ashton, late of Fort Wayne, and dated July 18. From this paper we learn that Mr. Ashton or Harcourt, as your pleases, is about to shake the dust of Lisbon from his feet and has sold his paper. A card signed by forty-four citizens sets forth the stereotyped regrets at losing "a worthy gentleman, honorable and respected citizen and brilliant journalist," to which Ashton replies with much effusion. Elsewhere an item states rather indefinitely that "Mr. Harcourt goes east to accept an important position with one of the leading metropolitan dailies."

In another part of the paper Ashton has the following ingenuous statement, which, it will be noticed, carefully refrains from mentioning the name of the young woman to whom he is alleged to have promised marriage:

"J. L. Colton of late has been making great ado about Mr. Harcourt's name. As Colton's tongue is no slander in our estimation, it is hardly worth the attention of reputable people, yet there may be some curious reader of The Star desirous of an explanation. Here it is:

At one time Mr. Harcourt traveled for a great city daily, as correspondent, writing under the nom de plume of Harry D. Ashton. In that capacity he visited Fort Wayne, Ind., with instructions to write up a 'celebrated case' in that city. Under that name he there became acquainted with many people. Shortly afterwards he accepted of the position of city editor of the Gazette, the only morning paper in the city, and the recognized leading republican paper of northern Indiana. This position he afterward resigned for the night editorship, a position he held until he resigned it to accept of a more lucrative one elsewhere. Those persons whose acquaintance he first made, as Harry D. Ashton, always called him by that name thereafter, and of course, from hearing them others called him by the same name. To many people in Fort Wayne, Mr. Harcourt explained the situation, yet they continued to speak to and of him by the name he traveled by when he first met them.

Mr. Harcourt has letters of recommendation from leading men of the city, including a judge, the then postmaster, and the then mayor of the city, the state senator from that district, and the present manager of the Western Union telegraph office in Fort Wayne. From the two daily papers of the city he carries the kindest commendations. Can J. L. Colton show one single recommendation of character from any human being, living or dead?"

AN ERRING WIFE

Suddenly Surprised by Her Husband While off on a Jaunt at Warsaw—The Courts will Probably settle the Difficulty.

A few years ago an enterprising young business man of this city courted, and won a pretty girl, the daughter of a well known citizen. For a year or so they lived happily together, and might have been yet had not business called the young husband away from the city. His prolonged and continued absence caused his wife's affections to wane, and it is is hinted that she lavished them profusely on several young bloods and occasionally caught on to a substantial citizen. A few days ago the wayward wife hied herself to Warsaw, that pleasant city of the lakes, where she accidentally, of course, met a genial companion. The twain enjoyed themselves in thorough modern style; in fact so modern that a friend telegraphed the young woman's husband to proceed at once to Warsaw and view the situation with all the good nature that he could muster. Yesterday the husband passed through this city on a Pittsburg train, and shortly after noon landed in Warsaw. It was not long until he met his wife with a gentleman friend. She rushed up to her husband with a smile, but he coldly pushed her aside and proceeded to read the riot act to the couple. The gentleman friend, who is well known in this city, took occasion to hastily excuse himself. The irate husband accused his wife of infidelity but she retorted that she manifested as much love as he did, and that if her ways did not please him he might seek relief. A [illegible] and the little difficulty will probably be settled in the courts. If such is the [illegible]

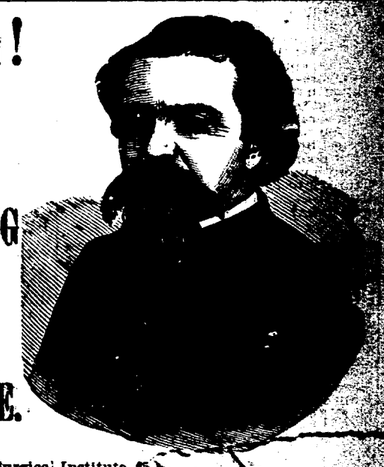
ALONG THE LINE.



Drs. Frothnigham and Kingsley of the Grand Rapids English Medical and Surgical Institute, 65 Monroe street, have arrived in our city and have established a branch at 34 West Main street, Aufrecht's block, Fort Wayne, where our patrons and citizens now under their treatment can consult with them; also any who may wish can obtain the benefit of their advice in regard to their diseases without questions and free of charge, thus giving every one the privilege of their unprecedented success in their specialty, without the heretofore long journey to their Institute in Grand Rapids. For the past three years they have been extensive have the demands that they should personally visit their many patients in our city, and Northern Indiana, and have at last consented, and will charge nothing for all those coming under their treatment the first 20 days. They will demonstrate by the accuracy of their diagnosis, which amount almost to intuition; they locate every ache and pain; explain how the disease or ailment was contracted, and demonstrate how it can be eradicated and in what length of time. Many are startled by their patients to be marvelous. The question is now, "can we be cured?" Drs. F. & K. take no cases pronounced incurable, but so state the case to the patient. They have no time for experiments; their time is all occupied treating those they can cure.

A thousand testimonials from Grand Rapids can be seen at their office, some of which we would print had we room.

A CLOSE CALL.

Mr. John Wisell Gets a Bullet Through the Arm From a Burglar, Whom He Encounters at Close Quarters.

Last night about midnight, Mr. John Wisell, who is employed in the Base foundry, after a social game of cards in a down-town saloon, went to his home on West Washington street. Entering the gate, he ascended the steps and tried the front door, which, to his surprise, he found open. A close inspection proved that the lock, a common one, had been tampered with. Lighting a match, Mr. Wisell entered the house and discovered in the hallway the crouching figure of a man. He called to the fellow, who made no response, and then seizing a heavy cane from the hat rack, advanced toward the man, who raised up and leveled a revolver at Mr. Wisell, who called out, "Don't murder a man in cold blood." The burglar, for such he was, made no reply, but shot twice, one ball taking effect in the fleshy part of Mr. Wisell's right arm. The latter was unarmed save with the cane, and struck at the would-be assassin as he rushed out of the house and clearing the fence, disappeared in the darkness. Mr. Wisell rushed out for a policeman, but the officer was further along on his beat, and so returning, he aroused his wife and inspected his wound, which was so slight that a handkerchief bound about the arm staunched the flow of blood. The ball grazed the fleshy part of the arm and lodged in the wall.

Wisell received lately a legacy of some $2000 and he was supposed to have money in his house. Evidently the attempted robbery was planned by one who knew of Wisell's circumstances. None of the sleeping family had been disturbed by the intruder until Wisell's arrival.

A PAYING SYSTEM.

Annual Report of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company—A Good Showing—Fort Wayne Roads.

The annual report of the Pennsylvania system has just been made public. The reports of the different companies are given in detail. The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad shows gross earnings of $19,741,890, an increase of 6.36 per cent. is about evenly divided, though the increase in the passenger traffic exceeds that of freight. The net [illegible] net was only 3.81. Nevertheless, the increase in the rental was less, so that the profit to the lessee was $1,715,674, a gain of 7.94 per cent. The tonnage shows a gain of 23 per cent., and the coke tonnage was 31 per cent greater, although the earnings were only 71.2 mills to a mile. The expenses were still further reduced so as to bring down the cost of operating to only 43 mills per mile.

The gross earnings of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Fort Wayne were $477,302, a gain of 9 per cent. more in passengers than anything else, and the cost of transportation was decreased 3½ per cent. to $275,284, leaving a deficit of only $29,318, after paying interest, against $70,693 for the year before.

The directors say, in conclusion, that the company after providing for all its obligations, was able to pay a dividend of 5 per cent. upon its full-paid stock of $20,000,000, and to carry to the credit of profit and loss $1,866,183.01. The company has no floating debt. The number of tons moved upon the lines operated directly by the company increased 2,238,894 tons, or 19.6 per cent. over the preceding year, while the ton-mileage shows a further increase of 296,738,915 tons, being 25.54 per cent. The passenger trafic also increased over the preceding year, the gain in numbers being 13.69 per cent., and in mileage 22.5 per cent. The gross earnings of each of the lines show a gain as compared with 1880, and an increase in the aggregate net earnings of $143,061.77.

Disease is an effect, not a cure. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and a restorer, and, by placing them in a healthy condition, drive diseases and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imposters, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

TUESDAY, JULY 18.

In His Own Coin.

In this seat engaged?" he asked of the prettiest girl in the car; and finding it wasn't, he put his sample box in the rack and braced himself for solid enjoyment.

"Pleasant day," said the girl, coming for him before he could get his tongue unkinked. "Most bewildering day, isn't it?"

"Ye-yes, miss," stammered the drummer. He wasn't in the habit of playing pitcher in this kind of match, and the position of catcher didn't fit him as tightly as his pantaloons.

"Nice weather for traveling," continued the girl; "much nicer than when it was cold. Are you perfectly comfortably?"

"Oh, yes; thanks!" murmured the drummer.

"Glad of it," resumed the girl, cheerfully. "You don't look so. Let me put my shawl under your head, won't you? Hadn't you rather sit next to the window and have me describe the landscape to you?"

"No, please," he muttered, "I—I'm doing well enough."

"Can't I buy you some peanuts or a book? Let me do something to make the trip happy! Suppose I slip my arm around your waist! Just lean forward a little so I can."

"You'll—you'll have to excuse me!" gasped the wretched drummer. "I don't think you really mean it!"

"You look so tired," she pleaded. "Wouldn't you like to rest your head on my shoulder? No one will notice. Just lay your head right down, and I'll tell you stories."

"No—no, thanks! I won't to-day. I'm very comfortable, thank you!" and the poor drummer looked helplessly.

"Your scarf pin is coming out. Let me fix it. There!" and she arrayed it deftly. "At the next station I'll get you a cup of tea, and when we arrive at our destination you'll let me call on you!" and she smiled an anxious prayer right into his pallid countenance.

"I think I'll go away and smoke," said the drummer, and, hauling down his gripsack, he made for the door, knee-deep in the grime showered around him by his fellow passengers.

"Strange!" murmured the girl to the lady in front of her. "I only did with him just what he was making ready to do with me, and, big and strong as he is, he couldn't stand it. I really think women have stronger stomachs than men, and besides that there isn't any smoking cars for them to fly to for refuge. I don't understand this thing."

But she settled back contentedly all the same, and at a convention of drummers, held in the smoker that morning, it was unanimously resolved that her seat was engaged, so far as they were concerned, for the balance of the season.

The Jockey Girl.

The style of the day which I find even harder to bear than that of the grown-up boy is, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the ladies' version of the horsey youth. She has borrowed his billycock hat, his dog's-ear collar, his knowing breast-pocket, his gloves, his buttons, and his boots. Her hair is cut short, like a curly boy's; her jacket is made by a London tailor; Newmarket gives its fiat to her horseman's overcoat, and the flower in the buttonhole is the last word of Piccadilly. Nor let us forget the whip; for no family that respects itself can live without its collie, or several collies. And a girl of this persuasion could as little be seen without her dog-whip as a guardsman without a bouquet. She has contrived, too, to spoil what I take to be as pleasant a sight as the animated world affords—A fine woman sitting well a fine horse. The poetry of motion is dismally turned into prose by the habit cut square at the ankle, the visible trousers and jockey boots. The theory is, as we all know, that the fair rider is Rotten Row is fresh from a run across the country. The melancholy fact is that she has somewhat the look of a stable-boy who has thrown on a skirt. My French friend is so far right; it is difficult indeed to think of this tally-ho as entirely a thing of beauty.

Ministerial Jokes.

When Dr. Chapin was dining at a hotel he was served with what was called barley soup on the bill of fare.

"That is not barley-soup," said he to the waiter; "it is barely soup."

On another occasion, while traveling in the south with his wife, who was uncommonly dark-complexioned, he addressed an old colored man as "uncle."

"How happens it," said his wife, regularly, "that colored men in your locality"
